Mr. O'Donnell's Class

Intro Practice Sheet

Name:	Period:	Number: OD-
Directions: Use the Writing Task and Hist create the introductions for each essay.	orical context fro	om two D.B.Q.'s to Historical Context: The early part of the twen to turn in homework among the students of G the lives of children have become crammed f employers put a higher premium on education	Sowanda Middle So full of many after so	chool. At the same time chool activities. While
Writing Task : Using the documents and your write an essay explaining:	own knowledge of	American history
why students don't like to do their homey	work.

Intro Practice Sheet

Historical Context: The modern student faces a world vastly more complicated than the one their parents grew up in. They are required to pass new state exams, cope with peer pressure and make difficult choices effecting who they will be as adults. Yet with every passing year their educators coldly demand more and more from them.

Writing Task: Using the documents and your own knowledge of American history write an essay explaining:

•	why teachers are so mean to their poor and innocent students.